Dear Kara,

Thank you for contacting us regarding the National Register eligibility of the Bluefields neighborhood. I had the opportunity to drive through the neighborhood a few weeks ago, and am glad to inform you that we have determined that it is eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. Additionally, this follows the opinion of our office and Nashville Metropolitan Historical Commission several years ago that, at that time, the neighborhood was eligible for listing in the National Register. My colleagues and I would be happy to discuss setting the boundaries for the proposed National Register district with you.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Christine Mathieson
